LLC, d/b/a SILVERADO OAK
VILLAGE, and SILVERADO SENIOR
LIVING INC.,

Defendants.

Case No. 17-CV-1147-JPS

CONSENT DECREE

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”) filed suit against Defendants Silverado Menomonee Falls, LLC d/b/a Silverado Oak Village and Silverado Senior Living, Inc. (“Defendants”) in EEOC v. Silverado Menomonee Falls, LLC d/b/a Silverado Oak Village and Silverado Senior Living, Inc., Civil Action No. 2:17-cv-01147-JPS, alleging they discriminated against Shaquena Burton by failing to accommodate her pregnancy-related medical restrictions, which resulted in her firing, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended by the Pregnancy Discrimination Act (“PDA”), 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e(k) and 2000e-2(a)(1). Silverado filed an answer to the suit in which it denied that it discriminated against Burton or acted illegally in any manner.

THEREFORE, upon the parties’ consent, and upon the Court’s review of these terms, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that the following terms are approved:

I. JURISDICTION

This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this action and shall retain jurisdiction for the duration of this Decree for entering all orders, judgments, and decrees that may be necessary to implement the relief, and to enforce compliance with the terms, provided herein.

IV. TERM

All provisions of this Decree shall be in effect and the Court will retain jurisdiction of this matter to enforce this Decree for a period of two (2) years immediately following entry of the Decree, provided, however, that if, at the end of the two (2) year period, any disputes under Section XII remain unresolved, the term of this Decree shall be extended automatically (and the Court will retain jurisdiction of this matter to enforce the Decree) until such time as all such disputes have been resolved.

V. INJUNCTION

A. Defendants and their officers, agents, management (including supervisory employees), successors, assigns, and all persons acting in concert with them are enjoined from engaging in any form of discrimination made unlawful under the PDA, including, but not limited to, failing to provide Job Modifications to pregnant employees on the same basis as such Job Modifications are provided to other persons not so affected, but similar in their ability or inability to work, or firing employees because of their pregnancy.

B. Defendants and their officers, agents, management (including supervisory employees), successors, assigns, and all persons acting in concert with them shall not engage in any form of retaliation against any person because such person has:

It shall also include specific, detailed directions on how to appeal the denial of a Job Modification and the name and contact information for the person(s) tasked with receiving such appeals. Finally, the orientation materials shall include Silverado's equal employment opportunity policies and the process for complaining about discrimination internally and shall advise employees of their right to file discrimination charges with EEOC.

F. Defendants shall also provide EEOC with copies of all pamphlets, brochures, outlines or other written materials provided to training session participants and the orientation materials described in Section VII.E, above.
